Quick Review

When an author makes a point, look for reasons. A reason answers the question why. Good reasons help you believe the point.

PART 1 — READ

Read the passage. Then answer the questions.

Why We Should Save Water

Water is very important. We should not waste it. Many people use water every day. We should all try to save water. Saving water is a good and smart thing to do.

Here is one reason. All living things need water to stay alive. People, animals, and plants drink water. If we waste water, less is left for everyone. So we should save water for all living things.

Here is another reason. Clean water is not always easy to get. Some places have very little water. When we save water, more is left for those places. Small steps help. Turn off the tap while you brush your teeth.

Explanations

1. B	The passage says we should all try to save water.
2. B	Paragraph 2 gives the reason that all living things need water to live.
3. A	Paragraph 3 gives the reason that clean water is not always easy to get.
4. C	This sentence gives a why, so it is a reason that supports the main point.
5. B	Paragraph 2 gives a reason that supports the point about saving water.
6. C	Paragraph 3 says to turn off the tap while you brush your teeth.
7. A	This reason shows that saving water leaves more for places that need it.
8. T	The passage gives two clear reasons for saving water.
9.	Answer: One reason is that all living things need water to stay alive. Accept either reason: living things need water, or clean water is hard to get.
10.	Answer: Yes, the reasons show water keeps living things alive and not everyone has enough. Accept any answer that connects to a reason from the text.
