Quick Review

Even good readers make mistakes. The trick is to NOTICE when a word does not look right, sound right, or make sense. When that happens, go back, REREAD the sentence, and FIX the word using the other words as clues.

PART 1 — READ

Read the passage. Then answer the questions.

A Wet Walk

Lily went for a walk in the park. Dark clouds came over the sky, and soon it began to rain. Lily had no umbrella, so she ran under a big tree to stay dry.

When the rain stopped, Lily walked home. Her shoes were wet and her hair was damp. She made a cup of warm cocoa and felt cozy again.

PART 2 — PRACTICE

Read the passage. Then choose or write the best answer for each item.

1. A reader reads the first line as Lily went for a walk in the dark. But the book says park. How can the reader fix this?
 - A. keep reading without looking back
 - B. notice that park fits and reread the line
 - C. stop reading the whole book
 - D. skip to the last page
2. Which CLUE helps the most when a reader has the wrong word?
 - A. the size of the print
 - B. the other words around it and what makes sense
 - C. the page number

 - C. tell the clouds to stop
 - D. skip the sentence

4. When does a reader MOST need to self-correct?
 - A. when the sentence does not make sense
 - B. when the page is on the right side
 - C. when two words rhyme
 - D. when the sentence is short
5. A reader reads she ran under a big three instead of tree. What clue shows the mistake?
 - A. you cannot run under a number like three
 - B. the word starts with a t sound
 - C. the sentence has many words
 - D. the page number is high
6. What should a careful reader do AFTER fixing a word?
 - A. reread the sentence to check that it makes sense

Explanations

1. B	The word park makes sense with a walk, so the reader should notice it and reread the line.
2. B	Context, the words around it and the meaning, is the best clue for fixing a word.
3. B	The word rain matches the clouds and the meaning, so the reader should reread and fix it.
4. A	A reader self-corrects when the sentence stops making sense.
5. A	The meaning clue shows that three does not fit, but tree, a plant, does.
6. A	After a fix, a careful reader rereads to be sure the sentence now makes sense.
7. A	After rain, wet shoes and damp hair make sense, so the word should be damp.
8. T	Self-correcting fixes mistakes so the reader understands the story correctly.
9. B	When a word looks wrong, the reader should check the letters, fix it, and reread.
10.	Answer: Example: Sentence: The boy kicked the ball. Wrong word: bell. A reader could see that you cannot kick a bell and fix it to ball. Accept any sentence with a sensible wrong word and a logical self-correction strategy.
