

A.M. and P.M.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Score: _____ / 24

Q Quick Review

A whole day has 24 hours, but a clock only shows 12 numbers. To tell the two halves of the day apart, we use A.M. and P.M. A.M. is the time from midnight until noon — the morning hours, when you wake up and eat breakfast. P.M. is the time from noon until midnight — the afternoon, evening, and night hours. A good way to remember: if the sun is coming up or it is morning, think A.M.; if it is afternoon or dark out, think P.M.

◇ Example: You eat lunch at 12:00 in the middle of the day. Is that A.M. or P.M.?

⇒ Let's think about when lunch happens. Lunch is in the middle of the day, right at noon. A.M. is before noon, and P.M. starts at noon and goes through the afternoon. Since noon is the start of P.M., lunch at 12:00 in the middle of the day is P.M.
