Name: _____

Date: _____

Score: _____ / 10

Quick Review

Focus on informative writing that explains a topic clearly. Strong test answers are precise, purposeful, and supported by the wording of the task.

PRACTICE

Answer each question. Choose the best answer for multiple-choice items and write complete short responses.

- Which choice BEST demonstrates informative writing that explains a topic clearly?
 - The water cycle is interesting and everyone should learn it.
 - The water cycle includes evaporation, condensation, precipitation, and collection, and each stage moves water through the environment.
 - I think evaporation is the best science word.
 - Clouds are nice, and rain can be annoying.
- Which revision best applies informative writing that explains a topic clearly? Original: Volcanoes are dangerous things that explode.
 - Volcanoes form when pressure forces molten rock through openings in Earth's crust, creating lava flows, ash, and new landforms.
 - Volcanoes are dangerous things that explode.
 - The water cycle is interesting and everyone should learn it.
 - I think evaporation is the best science word.
- A student is working on this task: A student is explaining how public libraries support communities. Which choice would be MOST effective?
 - The water cycle is interesting and everyone should learn it.
 - I think evaporation is the best science word.
 - Organize the response by services: access to books, technology, classes, and meeting spaces.
 - Clouds are nice, and rain can be annoying.
- Which explanation best describes why the stronger choice works?
 - It is longer than the other choices, so it must be better.
 - It uses complicated words even if they do not fit.
 - It avoids evidence so the reader can decide alone.
 - It is specific, relevant to the task, and controlled by informative writing that explains a topic clearly.

5. Which next step would most strengthen the student's work?
